

REPORT DECLARES ZELAYA IS HOLDING CALDERA PRISONER AS HE DID OTHER AMERICANS

OUR VICE CONSUL MAY BE IN JAIL

Long Silence Followed by Story from Nicaragua that Official Has Been Seized by Tyrant

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.— There were signs of unusual activity today at the state department, which it is believed, presage announcements within the next few days.

Despatches have been received from Managua and there are indications that the department has detailed information at hand now bearing upon the execution of the two Americans, Cannon and Groce.

Definite plans are said to be under consideration for restoring quiet in the disturbed region.
Efforts to learn whether the despatches received from Managua today were sent by vice-consul Caldera proved futile. Beyond stating that the despatches had come from that city, officials of the department declined to discuss the subject.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 27.— A cable from Bluefields, received at noon, declares that it is reported there that United States Vice Consul Henry Caldera, at Managua, has succeeded in communicating with the state department at Washington and that his report bears out stories of barbarous cruelties, preceding the execution of Cannon and Groce. The report, it is said, was forwarded some days ago, and nothing is known of the vice consul at present although there are rumors that he is in prison.

Despatches received here today say that Vice Consul Caldera at Managua, has been imprisoned by the Zelayan forces. No confirmation of the report has yet been received.

The despatches say that he is missing and that it is believed that he is one of the many prisoners held by Zelaya.

Friends here have made attempts to communicate with Caldera but have been unsuccessful. The reason for the alleged imprisonment of Caldera, according to today's despatches is the desire of Zelaya to hide from the United States government the cruelties that attended the execution of Cannon and Groce.

It is known that the state department has been unable to get any reply to the inquiries they have made concerning the execution. It is said that the Zelayan government has opposed letters and despatches to the vice-consul and these inquiries caused his imprisonment.

Seized on Neutral Ground

Statements from passengers and crew of the steamship Parismina from Costa Rica declare that Cannon and Groce were captured on neutral ground and before their execution were yoked together like oxen for hours. A hundred pound weight was tied to the yokes according to these reports and the men were scourged with a cat-o-nine-tails.

Efforts here are being made to begin a search for Caldera. The officials of the Estrada government are also aiding in the search and report that they can find no trace of him.

Must Be in Prison

The reports received today declare that only imprisonment would keep the Estrada forces from finding United States Consul Caldera, supposed to be held by Zelaya at Managua.
Refugees from the city who arrived and reported to the army of Gen. Sanchez, say no trace of the vice consul can be found. Dr. Salvador Castrillo, who represents the provisional government at Washington has been asked to assist in finding Caldera.
A message received today from Managua, Castriello is said by friends here to have received news which makes him believe that Caldera has been made prisoner and possibly has been shot at Zelaya's order.

Zelaya May Surrender

Reports from the interior, coming by way of Bluefields, today are megan. The conditions about Managua are unchanged, and it seems likely that the surrender of Zelaya may come before long.

The insurgent forces are well armed with provisions and have cut off the food supply of the Nicaraguan capital. Their force greatly outnumbers the Zelayan forces in the capital. By order of Estrada, it is reported here today, Gen. Sanchez will begin a thorough search for the missing vice-consul as soon as his troops enter the city.

Crisis at Hand

Advices received at local consulate today from Bluefields indicate that the crisis in Nicaragua is at hand. There were a number of rumors that Managua, the capital had fallen, and that Zelaya had been forced to surrender to the Estrada army.

PHILLIP ALLEN IN U. S. COURT TODAY

Tells What He Knows of the Defalcations at the Mineral Point Bank
INFORMATION IS WITHHELD Prisoner Takes Dinner at Stoddard and will Soon Leave for Federal Prison

Phillip Allen, Jr., wrecker of the Mineral Point National bank, Guy Roe, his brother-in-law and Miss Jackson of Minneapolis, a sister-in-law, together with United States Deputy Marshal W. H. Appleby formed a dinner party of four, which dined at the Stoddard hotel this noon.

The bank wrecker seemed to enjoy the repast and after dinner the party went to a room on the second floor, where he made final disposition of his remaining property before being taken to the Leavenworth prison, where he is destined to spend probably the remainder of his life, his sentence being for ten years.

Today's meal was one of the few good dinners which the prisoner will enjoy, and he seemed to be aware of this fact in ordering. Within three weeks, he will be shorn of his gray curly hair, and the dignified looking gray beard and will in a rough brown suit of prison clothing be compelled to subsist on the regulation prison fare of the Leavenworth federal prison.

Allen is thoroughly penitent.
When he came before the federal grand jury this morning, there was none of the assurance, self possession, and bravado which he displayed several weeks ago when he was indicted. Instead, Mr. Allen appeared a broken man, pale, haggard, and visibly afraid of the world. His look is that of the hunted animal, and he continually glances about him as though he feared the sudden approach of some unseen enemy.

Allen's Christmas dinner will be eaten, together with other federal convicts at Leavenworth. His Thanksgiving dinner was his last festival with his family. On that day he was granted permission by the marshal to take dinner with his wife and her two sisters at a Madison hotel, where they went in company with Deputy Marshal Appleby, who never lets his prisoner get out of his sight.
Allen ate turkey, mince pie, cranberry sauce and the usual Thanksgiving dinner Thursday with apparent relish.

The grand jury was in session this morning at nine o'clock and Mr. Allen was given opportunity to tell what he could of the wrecking of the Mineral Point bank. In clear tones, he confessed to the four indictments, to which he pleaded guilty at Madison.
He acted nervous and his testimony was given in a hesitating manner.

Tonight Phillip Allen will sleep in the La Crosse county jail, where he will be turned over for safe keeping to Sheriff William Duncan and Jailer Brown. His supper will be the regular jail fare of baked beans, bread and coffee.

At the time of going to press the grand jury is still in session here, and it is said that there will be another session Monday, as the jury will be unable to complete its deliberations tonight.

Tomorrow Allen will be permitted to take a walk in company with Marshall Appleby, and he may even get permission to attend one of the local churches.

MISSION MEETING

The City Mission meeting tomorrow night will be in the First Baptist church at 7:30 p. m. Supt. H.
Norton will deliver the sermon.

MAKERS OF BOGUS BUTTER INDICTED

Grand Jurors Sample Product and Admit it would Fool a Butter
Expert

Jersey Lilly butter is pretty fine butter, despite the fact that it doesn't contain a particle of butter fat. A sample brick of the product of A.
E. Graham of Janesville, against whom indictments were framed by the federal grand jury yesterday afternoon, was inspected and tested by the members of the jury, and was pronounced a pretty fine product.

Graham, in company with several other men, two of whom are now under arrest, and two more whom the authorities are after, had a new system of refining oleomargarine, which the authorities have been several years in discovering.

Ordinary crude oleomargarine was purchased by the pseudo buttermakers at Chicago packing houses, and taken to Janesville and Milwaukee, where it was refined. Later it was treated by a machine, of which it is said Graham is the inventor. This machine forced sweet milk through the finished oleomargarine product, with the result that it had the taste, flavor and smell of fresh creamery butter. The finished product as colored to a nicely and wrapped in crisp tissue paper, attractively labeled, an expert could not detect the difference between it and real creamery butter.

The product was sold under the name "Jersey Lilly brand creamery butter" and was largely in demand until the government inspectors got a sample of it and arrested the makers.

NOTED CAPTAIN'S WIFE A SUICIDE

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.—Mrs.
C. W. Tull, wife of Captain Tull of the Panama canal commission, committed suicide in her Panama home by severing her jugular vein with a hatchet, according to advices received today.

At first it was believed she had been murdered, but investigation showed that the hatchet had been specially sharpened. Apparently Mrs.
Tull wanted to make it seem as if a murder had been committed. The screen in a window was cut out, but it was done from the inside. Mrs.
Tull was 20 years old and was known as one of the prettiest women on the Isthmus.

GARFIELD ANSWERS JOHN D. OIL DECISION A DISSOLUTION

JAIL MAY BE FATE OF GOMPERS ET AL BY MONDAY NIGHT

Probability of the Supreme Court Granting Writ of Certiorari Not Bright Is Consensus of Opinion

Application for a writ of certiorari in the Gompers-Mitchell-Morrison contempt case was filed in the clerk's office of the Supreme court of the United States today by Attorney Siddons, representing the officials of the American Federation of Labor.
The application will be brought formally to the attention of the justices of the supreme court next Monday.
If a "book" were to be made, based on past performances of the supreme court of the United States in similar proceedings, the odds would be about ten to one that the defendants will go to jail.

A search of the records of the supreme court of the United States shows that about only one application in ten for writs of certiorari is granted.

All three defendants who are under bond will appear in person before the bar of the supreme court of the United States at noon Monday when the attorneys formally file their petition and brief for the writ of cer-torari. It is expected that the papers will be presented to the court by Judge Alton B. Parker, former candidate of the democratic party for president and chief counsel for the American Federation of Labor.

To Jail at Once
The usual practice is to take such applications under advisement for one week. If the application is denied, Gompers, Mitchell, and Morrison will be committed to jail forthwith for terms of twelve, nine and six months, respectively. In this event, there remains one possible recourse, the writ of habeas corpus.

Won't Ask Pardon
The suggestion that President Taft might pardon the three labor leaders is entirely eliminated by the related statements of Gompers, and his associates that they will make no application for a pardon and will permit none to be made in their behalf.

HE UNCLOAKS THE MAN OF MYSTERY

Rev. Wm. Burgess' Illumination of Shakespeare Endorsed as Sound by Leading Critics

To explain directly why Rev. William Burgess' exposition of "The Merchant of Venice" at Masonic Temple on the evening of November 30th, will be a masterpiece in this memory of Shakespearean students would be to use the ammunition of the hunter on the way to the woods. That those who desire to comprehend this great play can get an insight into the fullness of its meaning, and enjoy an illumination of its historic reference rounding out their understanding by new yet unchallenge-able standards, is an assertion substantiated by the leading scholars of the time.

Ten years delving into the mysteries of Shakespeare, digging out a new thought from between the lines with each successive reading, tracing historical reference and analogy, studying the man, his environment, his character and purposes and dia-gramming his productions with the Bible from which he evolved and substantiated the thought that it was Shakespeare's chief source of inspiration, Mr. Burgess labored to produce the most comprehensive book ever written upon the subject. Then came a fire, and destroyed his manuscript on the eve of publication, and except for scattered data and a mind saturated with the knowledge he had acquired, the author had nothing to show for his labors.

Went Through Fire

But undaunted he returned to the task, and the book was published a few years later, to revolutionize the world's idea of Shakespeare. Transformed from a mountebank actor to a man of God, his works illumined by a wealth of revelations bought with deep research, the Bard of Avon came into his own with the dissemination of this book, and today it is recognized as the unsalable authority. Reviewed by leading collegians and by the best publications, it found sincere praise and appreciation everywhere. In La Crosse the late Dr. Thomas pronounced it the book of the era upon its topic, and it was similarly heralded by scholars everywhere.

EX-SECRETARY IS CERTAIN OF RESULT

Says Opinion Is Solid Support of Government and that Injunction Makes Evasion Impossible

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 27.— James R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior, made answer to the recent statement of John D. Archbold, the Standard Oil magnate, relative to the decision dissolving the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. Archbold's statement was as follows:

"I believe the decision will result in legislation looking toward the repeal of the Sherman anti-trust law, for under that law it is almost impossible for practically any corporation to transact business for even co-operative partnership may be attacked. I believe the officials at Washington are coming to view that the law is too drastic and that even Mr. Roosevelt himself shares in that opinion."

What Garfield Says

Here is Mr. Garfield's answer:
"Since the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals upholding the government in its suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company, the statement has been made that this is a barren victory and merely proves that the anti-trust law is unsatisfactory. Such an interpretation of the decision is unjustified. It is true that President Roosevelt pointed out the unsatisfactory condition of the law and urged its change but only on condition that the government should be given the direct affirmative control and regulation over industrial corporations similar to the regulation of railroads and other common carriers. Mr. Roosevelt showed that to amend the Sherman law and not to provide other legislation would be most unwise.

Court Sustains Him

"Now, so far as this Standard Oil case is concerned, it is evident from published statements of the opinion, that the court sustains entirely the report I made as commissioner of corporations in 1906, which covered all questions of railroad discrimination, unfair competition, methods of control through subsidiary companies and the use of bogus companies and the general organization of the Standard Oil company. All these unfair methods are now prohibited through injunction, their exposure will help to prevent the repetition and in addition the court may now establish any person who violates the order.
"The court sustains our contention that the law seeks to prohibit the results of unfair competition and restraint of trade, not merely the methods used to obtain such results.

A Broad Order

"The injunction is broad, enough to hereafter reach any device, no matter how clever, how indirect.
"Another feature of this decision important to the public is that the federal government has shown no corporate power, no aggregation of capital is stronger than the United States and that in the hands of an efficient administration, the laws can be enforced against even the greatest corporation. The Roosevelt administration made an attack on the Standard Oil company not because it was big but because it was disobeying the law.

First Fair Treatment

"For the first time in the history of the oil business, the independent oil men are enjoying fair treatment from the railroads and are relieved from many of the unfair methods of competition practiced by the Standard Oil company.

"There is no surer, fairer way to prevent monopoly than for the government to retain control over the resources of the oil, coal, water and mineral phosphates left on the public domain, provide for their develop-

MARINETTE GAME TO DECIDE TITLE

Chippewa Falls and Vanderboom's Eleven Meet at Milwaukee Today to Fight for Honors

MADISON NOT OUT OF RACE

They Claim that the Winner of Milwaukee Game Must Meet Them for the Championship

The eyes of all state high school football followers will be centered on Marinette field this afternoon, where the crack elevens of Marinette and Chippewa Falls high schools clash in a game which will leave but two claimants to the championship of Wisconsin in the running. Both teams have gone through the season without tasting the sting of defeat. Both claim the state high school title and it is probable that the victorious eleven will play Madison next Saturday to decide the championship once and for all.

Madison still claims the title, and as the team has not been defeated this fall its claim must be recognized. It was thought that Madison had given up all claim to the title, but supporters of the school deny this, and if the capital boys demand a game the winner of today's contest will have to agree to play.

Both elevens arrived in Milwaukee last night, each with a big band of rooters who are quartered at the St. Charles hotel. The Marinette aggregation was accompanied by a band.

Last night the captains and coaches of both schools predicted a victory and if advance indications and records count for anything, the contest this afternoon will be one of the hardest and most fiercely fought ever seen in Milwaukee. The lineup:

Marinette is coached by E. J. Vanderboom, the old Wisconsin halfback, and Chippewa Falls is coached by "Coots" Cunningham, also of Wisconsin fame.

Marinette—E. Edwin, re; Colburn, rt; Leahy, rg; Murray, c; Anderson, lg; H. Edwin (Capt.) lt; Carrigan, le; Place, q; Brown, rh; Stevenson, lh; Dunker, f.

MADISON IN RACE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

That Madison has not counted itself out of the race for the state high school football championship is made evident by a letter from the captain of the capital school team in which he formally lays claim to the title. The letter in full follows:

"In reading your paper I noticed that Marinette plays Chippewa Falls in your city on Saturday for what was termed 'the state interscholastic championship.' Also that Madison had conceded the title to Marinette.

"Madison has the undisputed championship of southern Wisconsin and has conceded nothing to any other high school in the state. Therefore the game Saturday will simply decide the championship of northern Wisconsin. We tried to get a game with Marinette, but were unsuccessful. If you will please state this in your paper we, the student body of the Madison high, will be very much obliged to you. Thanking you in advance, I am, very truly yours,

YOST CLAIMS THE WESTERN HONORS

Says Marquette-Notre Dame Game Gives Wolverines the Championship; Will Return

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 27.—That Coach Yost will be back at Ann Arbor again next year to lead the Wolverine football team was made known here yesterday in an indirect way by Yost himself.

Yost, in discussing football, said that he advised Michigan to return to the Western conference. Here is the way Yost puts it:

"I have been quoted as being opposed to Michigan returning to the conference. I think that I was a little bit misunderstood in the matter. What I meant to say was that we should lie low and let things work out themselves, as they are bound to do in time. We are willing to renew our contracts with Chicago and Wisconsin at any time.

"I am not making any boasts nor any predictions, but I am content to await whatever turns up. It is a long time between now and next fall.

"No, I don't care to say anything about my coming back. My contract expired with the close of this season. Nothing has been done about a renewal. Nothing will be done until the athletic board meets at Ann Arbor. Would I be willing to come back if terms could be made satisfactory? Well, I haven't said I would not, have I?

"I guess that Marquette-Notre Dame scoreless ties will sort of make the critics who have been picking Longman's team as the western champion revise their dope. We came under the wire ahead in two games that counted."

SELECTIONS FOR ALL-WESTERN TEAM

The all westerns are now in full blossom and bloom. Some of them are good, some odd, and some not even that. Here is a clump of them:

BURNING ECZEMA QUICKLY SPREAD

Started Like Ringworm on Hand—Hand Swelled and Then Humor Spread to Arms, Legs and Face —It was Something Terrible.

PRESCRIPTIONS FAILED: CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I have used the Cuticura Remedies for a very bad case of eczema with complete success. About fifteen or eighteen years ago the disease developed in the shape of a large pinhead on top of my hand. It burned and itched so much that I was compelled to show it to a doctor. He pronounced it ringworm, and made very light of it. He gave me a wash and told me to apply it before going to bed and all would be over in the morning. But the next morning my hand was all swollen up and I poulticed it. When the doctor came to his office I showed him the hand and to my surprise he told me that he had never experienced such a case in his practice and said it was well I poulticed it. After trying his different remedies the disease increased and went up my arms and finally to my thighs and legs generally and finally on my face. The burning was something terrible. After I had tried this doctor as I thought, long enough, I went to another doctor who had the reputation of being the best in town. He told me it was a bad case of eczema and that it would take quite a while to cure it. His medicine checked the advance of the disease but no further.

"I finally concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and found relief in the first trial. I continued until I was completely free from the disease and I have not been troubled with another attack since. I still use the Cuticura Ointment in my family as it is one of the best remedies to heal a sore or other injury rapidly.

"I can freely and truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are the best so far as my experience went with them and I am still recommending them, feeling sure I am not making a mistake. C. Burkhardt, 236 W. Market St., Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 19, 1908."

MESSMER DEFENDS POOR FROM SLANDER

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—In his sermon at the dedication of the new St. Bernard's church and school here Thursday, Archbishop Messmer of Milwaukee refuted the oft-made charge that the "lower classes" breed criminals.

"It always provokes me to hear the tale about the ignorance of the poor, and the lower classes put down as the only class of criminals," he said. "It is a lie, it is a foolish statement made by foolish people. If a study of the lives of 'well bred' criminals be made, it will be found that greater crimes are committed by them and with greater tricks to prevent publicity."

CHRISTIE IS HIS FORTRESS ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 27.—Howard Chandler Christie, the artist, whose domestic troubles are being aired by his wife's proceedings to obtain possession of her child, arrived in this city from Columbus late last night and went to his bungalow, south of the city. He refused to talk.

JOHNSON MOVE TO CHICAGO TO LIVE

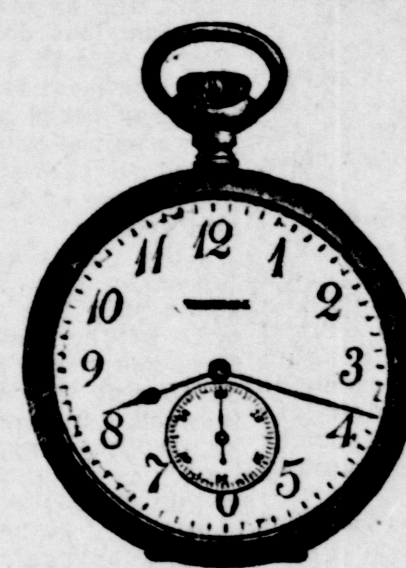

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Lima Johnson, mother of Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight of the world, departed Friday for Chicago. With her went Mrs. J. Rhoades, Jack's sister, and the other members of the Johnson family, who lived in Galveston for years. They will make their home in Chicago where they will be able to see "Jack" as he flashes down the boulevards in the big red automobile.

WILL SHOOT BIRDS FROM AIRSHIP

PARIS, Nov. 27.—A well known French sportsman has ordered a Bleriot monoplane, for use in shooting birds. The hunter is delighted over the idea of aerial shooting and made arrangements for an assistant who will operate the machine. The aeroplane will be steered about the air among the rising birds, while the hunter plugs away at his quarry from a seat before the pilot.

Waltham Watches

Mail Order Houses

A mail order house in Chicago or some other city may be able to sell you anything from a paper of pins to a house and lot, simply by referring you to their catalogues, but they can't sell you a good watch that way. Watches are very delicate machines that may be put out of order in a dozen ways after leaving the factory. A jeweler knows how to put the watch into shape, and he won't sell one without doing it. Mail order houses do not want to bother with that, and, as a matter of fact, they cannot if they would. Waltham Watches are the best in the world, but whether you buy a Waltham or some other kind, go to a jeweler, tell him what you want, and he will sell you a watch in good running order. Do not make the mistake of trying to buy by mail from any catalogue; you won't know what you are getting if you do.

Waltham Watch Company
Waltham, Mass.

N. B.—When buying a watch always ask your jeweler for a Waltham adjusted to temperature and position.

WORTH LIBERAL PATRONAGE

Now that the anti-tuberculosis stamp campaign is fairly launched in this county, a few observations relating to the subject may be profitable.Perhaps the single feature of the campaign this year which appeals most strongly for local support, is that change in the program by which the funds raised are devoted to local purposes under local direction. Formerly the fund went to a national organization, by which it was redistributed under guidance of national authorities. Now a sort of home rule administration has been established, half the fund raised in each county being expended by the state association, within the state, for work done within the state, and the other half being used within the county raising the fund, under direction of county authorities.As each state and each county knows its own needs better than they can possibly be known by men in the national field, this arrangement has decided advantages, and makes for more liberal contribution.Another important matter for consideration is the disposition of the fund by counties. Every contributor must feel that the one vital point is the selection of the best possible methods of accomplishing the end sought—the eradication of consumption. Therefore the announcement that a portion of the fund retained in the county is to form a nucleus for the erection here of a county sanitarium for tuberculosis victims is calculated to appeal strongly to local sentiment.The advantage of such a sanitarium will readily be recognized by physicians, nurses, and all those who are or have been afflicted with the disease or have relatives or friends so afflicted. The terror of the consumptive is the dread of being sent away for treatment. The suggestion of such a step at once shows the patient that the case is serious, and there arises the picture of some friend or acquaintance who wentaway to fight the lonely, bitter fight for life among strangers, and who came back in a box taken from the train by silent mourners.It is a dreadful thing—this going away to fight death, and perhaps succumb, with friends and home far away. The thought is bitter in contemplation of the sick one. And the most pitiable thing about it is that, with the expenditure of a little money in each county, it is unnecessary.
Experts agree that there is little difference in climates, that the climatic advantages of one place over another are far outweighed by the disadvantages of loneliness and absence of loved ones upon whose care and encouragement to rely. Air! Air! Air! That is the great healer. Live outdoors, sleep outdoors. Just a matter of facilities for treatment, and your relative or friend, or perhaps you yourself, may have friends, family, the family doctor near in the hour of crisis. Isn't that a possibility well worthy of the expenditure of enough money to buy a stamp for every letter you send out from now until the thing is accomplished? Yet the request is only that you use the stamps until January 1st, 1910.Other counties are making great efforts this year to get a good start toward a sanitarium. Dane county, which "nosed us out" last year in volume of stamps sold has set its mark at 600,000 stamps this year, and proposes to make good in the creation of its fund for the project.
Why may not La Crosse be equally ambitious, equally liberal, and perhaps more successful?In this connection The Tribune desires to suggest to readers living in this county, but outside La Crosse, and if not within the county so near it as to make a sanitarium here available, that it would be most appropriate and thoughtful for them to lend their assistance in this splendid enterprise by purchasing stamps.
It is as important to one in West Salem, or Bangor, or in any other nearby villages, to have a sanitarium within reach to care for their tubercular patients, as it is to people in this city, and the proposed sanitarium will be open to them—will be theirs as much as ours. Therefore we urge them to promptly order stamps and to use them on all mail matter.On behalf the ladies of the Twentieth Century club, who have so generously undertaken the work performed by them with signal success last year, The Tribune wishes to make an appeal. These women have home cares which call for their time and effort; in undertaking this task they are making personal sacrifice.
For this reason patrons of the stamps should not wait to be called upon personally, but should hasten to place orders by mail or telephone, thus lightening the labor and responsibility devolving upon the club members.
Make it easy for them as possible; it costs no more, and it will help a lot.Let us not be laggards in this work. You received your letter from the Twentieth Century club today. If you have not replied to it with an order for stamps addressed or telephoned to one of the three ladies whose signatures it bears, DO IT NOW.

POPULAR RECIPE

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Stops Coughs QuicklyMake a plain syrup by taking one pint of granulated sugar, add one half pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put two and one-half ounces of pure Pinex in a pint bottle and fill it up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Keep well corked and it will never spoil.The effectiveness of this simple home-made article is surprising. It usually stops a deep-seated cough in twenty-four hours. It is also excellent for colds, whooping coughs, croup, in the chest, bronchial troubles and similar ailments.Use the real Pinex in making it, however. It is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract, and it is far superior to the numerous pine oil and pine tar preparations. If your druggist does not have it, he can get it for you without trouble.The proportion above suggested makes a full pint of the best cold and cough remedy. The taste is so pleasant that children take it willingly.
The total cost is about 54 cents.Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for La Crosse People to NeglectThe great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them.
Health is gradually undermined.

lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in La Crosse.Thomas Raper, 1626 Winnebago street, La Crosse, Wis., says: "About nine years ago symptoms of kidney trouble made their appearance in my case. My back became so weak and lame that I dared not stoop and the pains through my kidneys were severe. I had but little control over the passages of the kidney secretions and was in a bad shape when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention. I procured a supply at Erhart & Son's drug store and through their use was entirely relieved. No remedy ever helped me as much as Doan's

SPOTLIGHTS

NORTH BROS. COMEDIANS

A good sized audience was pleased at the La Crosse theater last night with the presentation of "A Girl of the South" as presented by North Bros. Comedians.This company closes their engagement here tonight by presenting one of the best bills of their repertoire namely, "The Montana Sheriff" a western border play in four acts.
The play abounds with comedy, thrilling situations and startling clinmaxes and has heretofore been one of the most popular in their repertoire.The valuable diamond ring on display at Irvine's Jewelry store will be awarded to some one in the audience tonight, and is a valuable and beautiful thing, one that anyone may be proud of. A matinee was given this afternoon and a good sized audience was thoroughly pleased with the play.Miss Gertrude Fowler who has the part of the Princess Yvonne in the production of George Burr McCutcheon's Beverly, the dramatization of the charming and popular novel, Beverly of Graustark, which plays a return engagement at the La Crosse theater matinee and evening, Dec. 4, is a Washington society girl. Before she was attracted by the glitter of the footlights she was a prominent figure in the social life at the nation's capital and her life was one gay round of balls, parties and ambassadorial functions.Tiring of the glitter and tinsel of the social whirl she decided to devote her life to art and choose the stage as her vehicle.Her success was almost immediate and for the last three years she has been engaged in the highest form of dramatic art, the depicting on the stage of Shakespeare characters.
Last season she was leading lady with Charles Hanford in Shakespearean roles and for two years previous to that she had leading parts with the Ben Greet players.Miss Fowler's abilities are particularly adapted to the part she has in Beverly for she succeeds in giving the requisite amount of stately dignity and royal bearing necessary for a true depiction of the character yet withal she retains the sweet delighful girlish friendship existing between Beverly and the Princess.

HARVEY STOCK CO.

Mr. Harvey D. Orr, owner of the Harvey Stock company, which appears at the La Crosse theater for eight nights with usual matinees, starting Sunday, Nov. 28, is one of the few theatrical managers who believe absolutely in the "square deal".
In a recent interview in the "Show World" he expressed himself thus:"This cry of bad business is all bosh. The people want amusement, it is necessary to their existence and if the managers would give them what they want, they in turn would patronize the show. One half of the shows on the road have no right to exist, and only make it hard for the good shows that come along behind them. My motto has always been to give the people their money's worth and more too. Never profit by the impossible and always fulfill your promises. We carry enough people to give completed productions of our plays and always keep abreast of the times. The result is that with clean, high-class and up-to-date vaudeville and other companies come up to the standard. We have been doing good business all through the bad times. The people are always glad to see us come and we try to make them feel that we appreciate their patronage by giving them what they want—high-class productions, complete in all details and always at popular prices.""A Daughter of Satan" is the opening bill.

ADVANCE VAUDEVILLE

The bill at the Bijou next week is filled with many sparkling headline features. The leading one Albin, "world's master magician and illusionist." Albin has made and invented more illusions than all other well known illusionists combined. In fact nearly all the well known illu-sionists are using one or more of Albin's illusions. Not only in illusions but in cards and in nearly every line of the magical profession does Albin lead. He has had his own

ST. PAUL'S EXPERIENCES

BROOKLYN
TABERNAE
BIBLE STUDIESThe Power of the Will—Self Control Romans 4:19-21.—November 28.
"It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth."— Rom. 14:21.In today's study St. Paul, in his vigorous style, marks out the path of proper Christian conduct, in harmony with the second great commandment of the Law.
"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The lesson may be applied in a measure to every intelligent being, but strictly, particularly, it applies to everyconsecrated member of the Church of Christ. All men have wills and it is important that all should learn to use them. As a man willeth, so is he. The will-less, the supine, are things, not truly men and women. To be a hero in the strife means to have a will and in proportion to its influence and strength will be the influence and value of the personality.
Children should not be trained to have no will, but, contrariwise, to have a will, but to submit it to the proper rulers and guides of life—at first to parents and the earthly teachers and, later on, to the Divine will—fully, completely.The Apostle is addressing to those who submit their wills to the Lord—those who have accepted the Divine will, as instead of their own. The noblest and best of the people of God are those who have strong, iron wills, which they have fully submitted to the guidance and direction of the Lord—through the Bible, the holy Spirit and Divine Providence.
"The Father seeketh such to worship him as worship him in spirit and in Truth."

Developing Will Power

Some men are born with strong wills; others rather weak-minded. In the world the latter sink or swim, survive or perish, in the vicissitudes of life, often controlled by the law of supply and demand and the survival of the fittest. The inequalities of birth are frequently accentuated by life's experiences and often disastrously. Some of the strong-willed become merchant princes and managers of large enterprises, and some become thieves and desperadoes—the outcome depending largely upon the channels. The only safe course for any mariner on the sea of life is to take on board the great Pilot, the Lord Jesus. This Pilot will probably rarely guide into a haven of earthly riches or earthly
life of the vaudevillean the best.
Manager Koppeler has made arrangements with Albin whereby he will change his act daily. His sleight of hand tricks are performed with a smoothness that is remarkable. Each trick is accompanied with a line of talk that is interesting and there is not a moment that he does not keep the faces of his spectators in a broad grin. His humor is catching and seems to penetrate the hide of the most pessimistic. His stage paraphernalia is the most magnificent ever carried by a magician.It is not saying too much when we say that this one act will be the wonder of the season.King & Davis, comedy singers, in a sketch entitled "In a Bit of Stage-land." This team is said to have remarkable voices, have splendid costumes and make a handsome appearance. Their act is high class and very artistic.Bessie Allen "The Dancing Doll" is a very clever and dainty dancer.Delphino & Dehnora, the European comedy novelty musical artists. This act has always been voted the big scream wherever it has appeared.
Their comedy is of the sure fire variety. They promise to show us many new things and guarantee to have everyone laughing. We predict that the Bijou will have the S. R. O. sign out often next week.

The Little Brown Jug at Kildare.

BY MEREDITH NICHOLSON.
COPYRIGHT 1909A series of corn-cribs fringed the field, and into one of these, from which half the corn had been removed, the prisoner was thrust sprawling upon the yellow ears, and when he rose and flung himself down, the door of the corn-crib slammed in his face. He ebullient with rage now, seeing that his imprisonment was a serious matter, and that it seemed likely to be prolonged indefinitely."They always told me you were a fool," he howled, "but I didn't know that anything as crazy as you are was loose in the world.""Thank you. The head of your gang is much more polite. He's sitting on his case of Chateau Bizet in my wine cellar, playing solitaire.""Apprehensive in your wine cellar!" bawled the captive in astonishment."Certainly. I was afraid to lock him in a room with bath for fear he might get hydrophobia; but he's perfectly content in the wine cellar.""What are you going to do with him?""I haven't decided yet just what to do with him, but the scoundrel undoubtedly belongs in South Carolina, and I have every intention of making his own state punish him."The prisoner leaned heavily against his prison door and glared upon his jailer with a new, fierce interest."I tell you I've nothing to do with the Appaleighs! I don't want to reveal my identity to you, you young beggars; but I demand my legal rights.""My dear sir," retorted Ardmore, "you have no legal rights, off the writ of habeas corpus doesn't go here. You seem rather intelligent for a barn burner and timber thief.
Come now, what is your name?"The prisoner gazed down upon the imperturbable figure of his captor through the slats of the corner.
Ardmore returned his gaze with his most bland and child-like air. Many people had been driven to the point of madness by Ardmore's apparent dullness. The prisoner realized that he must launch a self-possession so complete—a tranquility as sweet as the fading afternoon."Mr. Ardmore, I dislike to do it, but your amazing conduct makes it necessary for me to disclose my identity," and the man's manner showed real embarrassment."I knew it; I knew it," nodded Ardmore, folding his arms across his chest. "You're either the King of Slam or the Prince of Petosky. As either, I salute you!""No!" roared the captive, beating impotently against the door of the cage with his hands. "No! I'm the governor of South Carolina!"This statement failed, however, to produce the slightest effect on Mr.
Ardmore, who only smiled slightly, a smile less incredulous than disdain-ful."Oh, pshaw! that's nothing," he replied; "I'm the governor of North Carolina!" and mounting his horse he gravely lifted his hat to the prisoner and galloped away.While Mr. Ardmore was securing his prisoner in the corn-crib it may be interesting to return for a moment to the haunted log cabin on Raccoon Creek, the interior of which was roughly but comfortably furnished.
Above were two small sleeping-rooms, and beside the bed in each stood a suit-case and a hand-satchel. In each room hung, on convenient hooks, a long, black frock-coat, a pair of trousers of light cloth, and a broad-brim black felt hat. Coat, trousers and hat were exactly alike.In the room below sat a man in his shirt-sleeves, his feet on a cheap table, blowing rings from a cigar. He presented a picture of the greatest ease and contentment, as he occasionally stroked his short brown beard, or threw up his arms and clasped his hands about his head or caught lazily at the smoke rings. On the table lay an array of playing cards and poker chips."It's too good to last forever," the lone occupant reflected aloud, stifling a yawn, and he reached out with careless indifference, toward a bundle of newspapers tied together with a piece of twine and drew one out and spread it across his knee. Heyawned again as though the thought of a world whose affairs were stamped in printer's ink bored him immensely; and then the bold headlines that shouted at him across half a quarter of the sheet caused him to gasp, and his feet struck the bare floor of the cabin resoundingly. He now bent over the paper with the greatest eagerness, muttering as he read, and some of his mutterings were, it must be confessed, not without profane embellishment.

"Scandal Affecting Two State Executives; Is the Appaleigh Case Responsible? Rumors of Fatal Duel on State Line."He read breathlessly the startling story that followed the head-lines, then rose and glanced anxiously at his watch."Am I drunk or mad? I must find Osborne and get out of this."He lapsed to the open door, and gazed into the forest from a little platform that commanded all sides of the cabin. And there, to his utter amazement, he saw men in khaki emerging cautiously from the woods. They were unmistakably soldiers of some sort, for an officer was giving sharp commands, and the line opened out like a fan along the creek. The observer of this maneuver mopped his head with his handkerchief as he watched the alert movements of the figures in khaki.He was so absorbed that he failed to hear stealthy steps at the rear of the platform (but he was now rudely aroused by two uniformed youngsters with S. C. N. G. on their caps, who sprang upon him and bore him with a crash to the puncher floor."You're our prisoner!" shouted one of them, rising when he found that the prisoner yielded without resistance."What for?" blurted the captive, sitting up and rubbing his elbow."For being Bill Appaleigh, alias Potet. Get up, now, and come with us to headquarters, or my instructions are to break your head.""Who in the devil are you?" panted the prisoner."Well, if it's anything to you, we're the South Carolina militia, so you'd better get up and climb."

COMPLETE NEWS OF THE NORTH SIDE TODAY

Beware of Imitations.

Cheap Substitutes and "Just As Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low-grade, impure whiskey, which they tell you is as "good as Duffy's."

It is a cheap concoction and fraud, intended to deceive the people. Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure goods. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A fac-simile of the genuine bottle is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle—round, amber colored and with the name "Duffy Malt Whiskey Company" blown in the glass. The trademark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

It is the only whiskey recognized by doctors everywhere as a family medicine. At all drug-gists, grocers, dealers, or direct. $1 a bottle. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for free illustrated medical book and free advice.

POLICE ARE AFTER PUG-NOSED KELLEY

Hobo by that Name Wanted in Portage for Assault; May Be in This Vicinity

All clues point to the fact that the man who maliciously attempted to murder Justice W. G. Bunker of Portage in his office on Wednesday was none other than "Pug Nose" Kelly, a hobo who was held to the circuit court by Justice Bunker a few years ago on a charge of criminal assault on a young boy in the Milwaukee road yards.

Kelly had just been released from Waupun, where he served time for maltreating a boy. It is thought that he came directly to Portage.

It seems that Kelly after knocking Mr. Bunker into insensibility and leaving him for dead extracted the latter's pocketbook containing six dollars from his hip pocket and took it with him when he left for parts unknown.

Sheriff Dalton of Portage has sent broadcast over the land in the description of Kelly, which is being hopes of taking him into custody. Under the caption "$100 for Pug Nose Kelly, alias John Williams," it is as follows: "The above is wanted for attempted murder at Portage, Wis., on Nov. 24. Height 5 feet 10 inches. Weight about 155 pounds. Smooth face, very dark complexion, black hair and eyes, dark clothes. A hobo. Has served time at Waupun."

Sam Enzerillo, the Italian, has been released from custody. He was taken before Justice Bunker Wednesday afternoon and was positively identified as not being the man wanted.

Mr. Bunker is better and strong hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The police department here yesterday afternoon received a telephone message from the chief of police at Portage to be on the lookout for Kelly. The message stated that the criminal was headed in this direction and all the patrolmen have been cautioned to watch for him.

NO SETTLEMENT IN TOOL CO. WALKOUT

The punch press operators at the La Crosse Stamping and Tool company who walked out yesterday noon as the result of a disagreement with a new foreman, had up to late this afternoon not returned to work. It is understood that the foreman refused to agree to the terms of the men, which have been in use for the past two years.

The manager of the plant today refused to discuss the situation saying that it was but a trifle which would not cripple the efficiency of the factory to any extent.

At present no attempts at a settlement have been made.

RUNAWAY TOSSES PAIR FROM RIG

West Side Couple Have a Narrow Escape when Scared Animal Passes

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. West, 1228 Avon street, had a narrow escape from serious injury shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, when a runaway horse and carriage belonging to George Oeltjendier ran into the carriage in which they were riding, on the Rose street viaduct over the Milwaukee tracks. The occupants of the buggy were thrown out but escaped injury.

Mr. Oeltjendier, who had entered a store on Rose street, left his horse and carriage standing untied, at the curb. The horse soon began to trot off and, increasing its speed to a gallop, started up the viaduct at the lower end of the street. Mr. and Mrs. West were crossing the viaduct and the animal struck the buggy with the carriage it was pulling, throwing the occupants to the ground. The Oeltjendier horse stopped and Mr. and Mrs. West continued on their way. The carriages were not damaged.

Mr. Oeltjendier stated later that a short time ago his horse had been struck by an automobile and since then the animal has been skittish.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 27.—The government closed its case in the Cunningham Alaska Coal lands cases Friday, reserving the right to introduce more evidence at the hearing to be held at Suakane at the conclusion of the trial here.

L. R. Glavis, former government agent, whose charges against Secretary Ballinger created a sensation lately, is not likely to resume the stand during the trial.

GERMANY IS SO GLAD

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—All Berlin is talking excitedly today of the sensational anti-English speech made at Thursday's Thanksgiving day banquet by Prof. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, who holds the Roosevelt appointment to the faculty of Berlin University. The anti-English agitators throughout Germany seized upon Ide's speech as an indication of the friendly feeling of the United States toward Germany in her attitude toward England.

There are so many unpleasant experiences in the world that you need not tell yours on the theory that you have a monopoly.

TO TEACH MORALS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—By a large vote the Wisconsin conference on criminal law and criminology this morning adopted a committee report recommending legislation for Wisconsin, providing for moral instruction in public schools. Other notable reports adopted were favoring the establishing of a chair for the study of remedial law at the university of Wisconsin; that the saloon, as a recognized source of crime, should be further restricted; that play grounds should supplant "organized gangs" among the youths of cities; that the age of children coming under jurisdiction of the juvenile courts be increased, girls to 18 and boys to 17; that all criminal jurisdiction of justices of the peace be vested in municipal courts or where there is not enough business for such courts, the preliminary hearing powers be conferred on county courts.

Divorces and desertions, non-living wages and child and woman labor were cited as direct causes of crime. The conference chose councilors, headed by C. C. Bowron of Green Bay, to frame bylaws, etcetera, and it was resolved to become the Wisconsin branch of the American institute of criminal law and criminology.

The new organization numbers among its members a majority of the best known lawyers, judges, ministers and social workers of the state.

GET MISSING MAN FOR GLOVER CASE

Witness Wanted Now Before Grand Jury and Statute May Not Long Be that of a Witness

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 27.—The latest sensation in the case of C. L. Warriner, defaulting treasurer of the Big Four railroad, charged with embezzling $643,000, came today when it was announced that Miss Ida Brockway, "the other woman in the Warriner case," has disappeared. Miss Brockway is stenographer in the office of Amor Smith, surveyor of customs. She lived with Mrs. Jeanette Ford-Stewart for a time and was called before Prosecutor Hunt Tuesday. She asked for a leave of absence Wednesday, Smith says, and it was refused her. She has not reported for duty since, he declares.

An Important Factor
The man's importance in the mystery developed after the crime and even before the girl accused by the dying Glover was found lying under the bed in the Glover home. Tony Le Blanc held the property of the Glovers in his name. He has been heard to threaten Glover and was known to have taken the side of his sister, Mrs. Glover, in the many quarrels that stirred the laundry man's home.

Just what evidence the score of witnesses being examined today are giving has not developed. The hearing is being held secretly.

After the first session of the inquest which was adjourned at 2:30 this afternoon District Attorney Higgins was asked for what reason the state police were holding Toby Le Blanc.

"He is being held as a witness," now," was the reply. As to whether or not Le Blanc's status was likely to change, the district attorney refused to say. He also declined to discuss the probability of any other developments.

The hearing of witnesses before the inquest was resumed at 3 o'clock and the court officials declared the examination might not be concluded until late this evening. It might not even come to an end tonight.

KATE SLATTERY DIES IN CHICAGO

Undertaker William Dwyer this morning received a telegram from Chicago stating that Miss Kate Slattery, about 48 years of age, and formerly a resident of this city, was dead there and that the remains would arrive here tomorrow morning for interment in the Catholic cemetery.

Miss Slattery formerly lived on Caledonia street, having been born and educated in this city. About seven years ago the entire family, residing here, removed to Chicago. No details of the woman's death have been received here. She has no relatives in this city. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

He will relate from his own experience, which covers an extensive field, stories of crimes, criminality and of the better means to eliminate these evils of society. His numberless press notices show him to be a marvelous man in his work as well as on the lecture platform.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock Detective Wiard will deliver an address at the Tabernacle Baptist church, Avon and Clinton streets.

Distension Of The Stomach By Air

And Eructations of Gas Rapidly Relieved by Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges

Willow charcoal is the most important and the purest kind of charcoal obtainable. Wood consists of carbon, hydrogen, and oxygen, and when heated in a room where the supply of air is limited, the more volatile matters are burned away, and most of the carbon remains.

In a finely divided state charcoal not only condenses gases to a marvelous extent, but also has the power of absorbing coloring matters. It is a very rapid absorbent of gases of every kind, and is much used in the dissecting rooms and wards of hospitals for the removal of offensive odors.

In rooms which have been recently or freshly painted, a pan or other receptacle of charcoal allowed to remain therein over night, will completely absorb and remove all the disagreeable paint-odor.

Physicians frequently employ charcoal for destroying the fetor of wounds, for which purpose it is applied in the form of a powder or poultice to gangrenous sores, ulcers, etc.

It is also largely used in tooth-powders, as by its mechanical action it removes incrustations of the teeth, while by its chemical action, it destroys fetor, or foulness of the breath.

Indigestion accompanied by flatulence, or gas on the stomach, and belching, and in the colic of infants, or older persons, as well as the so-called "lead-colic," or "painter's colic," charcoal is by far the best and most powerful remedy that can be used.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges should be used frequently or constantly by painters, or workers in lead, and all persons whose occupations make them liable to "lead-colic." They should also be employed by anyone who suffers from those annoying symptoms of indigestion, such as fermentation, decomposition of food, flatulence, or gas on the stomach, colicky pains, resulting from the over-distension of the intestines with gas, and the rumbling noises of the bowels with which so many dyspeptics suffer, and which prove so annoying and embarrassing, when occurring while in company.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are composed of pure willow charcoal mixed with honey, and are capable of absorbing one hundred times their own volume in gas; and by their rapid anti-fermentative, antiseptic, deodorizing and absorbent action, prevent the possibility of colic or internal rumblings of gaseous products. They are absolutely harmless, and may be given freely to infants suffering from colic, and used just as freely by older persons who are annoyed by flatulence and gas eructations. In proof of the harmlessness of charcoal, a French physician was in the habit of taking fifteen ounces every day of his life, and recommended its abundant use to others.

Purchase a package of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges from your druggist today for 25 cents, and send us your name and address for free sample package. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 290 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

PEDDLERS NEED PAY NO LICENSE

Important Decision in Minnesota Believed to Effect the Validity of Local Ordinances

While Minnesota supreme court decisions do not directly affect the validity of Wisconsin laws, where constitutionality is determined they may be taken as a strong indication as to the validity of Badger measures and by a decision calling peddlers' license laws unconstitutional the validity of similar laws in this state are said by leading lawyers to be effected.

The Minnesota supreme court held that the law compelling peddlers, hawkers and transient merchants to pay a license or special tax is unconstitutional as a police regulation, being class legislation.

La Crosse has an ordinance imposing a tax upon "transient merchants, peddlers and vendors," and it is taken from this decision that the same constitutional rule applies to all similar measures in Wisconsin and that they could be readily declared unconstitutional if taken into the courts. Transient merchants insist that resident merchants were instrumental in securing the passage of such laws and ordinances, and that they are in no case worth the paper they are written upon. The decision of the Minnesota supreme court was made yesterday.

CHRISTY CASE TO BE WARM ENOUGH

Matter Adjourned Today — Gay Models Fail to Appear—Artist Dares His Wife to Tell All

ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 27.—Howard Chandler Christy, the magazine artist, accompanied by his daughter, Natalie, the bone of contention in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by his wife, Mabelle Thompson Christy of New York, appeared in probate court this morning to answer the charges of his wife.

The latter is still in the east and a continuance was granted until Friday and Saturday, Dec. 7 and 8. Christy was allowed the custody of the child pending the final hearing, despite the protest of Mrs. Christy's attorney.

Natalie Christy, whom Mrs. Christy declares, is not being properly dressed or educated, bears a striking likeness to her beautiful mother and today was dressed in a white dress, white stockings, tan shoes, white beaver hat and a dark fur coat. She took a childish interest in the proceedings. Mr. Christy has been muzzled by his attorney, F. A. Durbin, who once saw him talking to the newspaper men and pulled him away, not however until Christy had dared his wife to tell all she knew of their New York life.

Fanchette Britt, Christy's French model, and Mr. Talbot, his English model, who are expected to figure largely in the hearing, were not present in court this morning.

After the hearing Christy was driven to the office of his attorney. Later the entire party went to his country home.

WILD AND WOOLEY WESTERN SCENE

Two Texas Cowboys Shoot Up Town and Terrify Citizens, and Then Depart on Foot

ENGLEVALE, N. D., Nov. 27.—Texas cowboy brothers, carrying four 44 calibre revolvers and loaded with ammunition, have held this town in a state of terror for hours, ending late last night, when they departed south unmolested. During their reign they killed Louis Maxwell, farmer, near town, and threatened others at the point of a gun with instant death.

They are now being pursued by Sheriff Cooper of Ransom county and four deputies.

The trouble originated in the pool room of Gust Uam, when, following an altercation in which Maxwell asked the cowboys to shake dice and finally pulled the pipe from the mouth of one of the cowboys, Dan Gant, the latter pulled a gun.

A bystander tried to prevent the shooting and grappled with Gant, but Gant broke partially free, leveled the weapon over his contending shoulder, and shot Maxwell a half inch below the heart. Maxwell died early this morning.

The Gant brothers then displayed their weapons, threatened the modest citizenship of the town with certain and instant death if they were interfered with, ran the town all night and departed about early this morning. Settlers throughout the surrounding county are so terrified that no definite information can be secured regarding the location of the outlaws.

The two brothers came here a few weeks ago and have been working for a rancher, Euvren, three miles out. On account of their silent manner and modest ways they had not been thought dangerous.

ATTEND INITIATION IN WINONA SUNDAY

Local Knights of Columbus will Take Morning Train to Neighboring City Tomorrow

La Crosse Council No. 839 of the Knights of Columbus will attend the joint initiation at Winona tomorrow in a body, this having been decided at a meeting of the council this week. It is expected that about 100 from this city will attend the meeting. The local delegation will meet at the Burlington depot to take the 8:40 o'clock morning passenger train, which will bring them to the Gate City in time to attend the high mass which has been postponed in behalf of the visitors. District Deputy John F. Doherty will confer the third degree at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. He will be assisted by a team from Chicago.

A class of about sixty from this city, Caledonia and Winona will be initiated and installed.

At 6 o'clock in the afternoon all the visitors and the members of the Winona council will gather at the Union Club hall for an elaborate banquet which has been arranged as the feature of the celebration.

The following is the program for the day's work:

9:30 a. m.—Assembling of candidates and brother knights in the Union Club hall.

10 a. m.—Solemn high mass at the St. Thomas cathedral by Rev. Father English, chaplain of the Winona council, celebrant; sermon by Rev. Father Griffin of Ellsworth, Wis.

2:30 p. m.—Exemplification of the second degree, by La Crosse council.

6 p. m.—Banquet at Union Club hall, followed by an informal program of speaking.

TURKEY WISHBONES FORECAST FRIGIDITY

The Thanksgiving turkey served a double purpose this year. Besides adorning the table at the annual feast it tipped off to consumers the fact that the coming winter will be one of the coldest in years.

The wishbones this year are thinner than they have been for the past ten years, and a thin turkey wishbone, avow the believers in signs, is a sure omen of a cold winter.

As a result the coal and wood man is rubbing his hand with glee over the orders that flowed in for extra supplies, immediately after Thanksgiving, and over the prospect of the high price that he will undoubtedly secure when the merciless cold has the country in its grip.

The common people have one sympathizer, however, that being the ice man. With the announcement that the winter is to be long and rigorous, all plans for the annual "story" about "warm winter causes a shortage" have flown, and it is up to him to deliver the goods at the regular price next summer.

COLOR BLINDNESS, MORALLY CHARGED

That Is Why Americans Put Bigness Ahead of Greatness, Says Bishop Williams

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 26.—That Americans are afflicted with moral color blindness, that Detroiters are smug and conceited and that the other ministers entirely missed the point of true Thanksgiving day services, are a few things Bishop Williams of the Episcopal diocese left his hearer to cogitate over today. Detroit is not used to being called smug and is still blinking at the thing. While Bishop Williams was decrying the attitude that puts material gain over spiritual progress, nearly every Detroit minister was holding forth on how thankful the world should be for peace and material prosperity.

"We Americans," he said, "have a peculiar defect of vision, a characteristic which I might call congenital moral color blindness. We cannot discriminate between bigness and greatness."

"In fact, bigness, in our eyes, eclipses greatness. We call New York and Chicago great cities. But are they? We talk of our growing population. How many souls, living souls, do we number among us? We talk of a man's worth. Do we mean his moral value, his service to the community, his influence over his fellow men? No. We invariably translate his worth into material means."

"We put things above men. With us, success covers a multitude of sins. Physical prosperity is not an unexpected blessing."

"We have an adage—'In Detroit life is worth living'—that smacks of smugness and unthinking optimism of civic conceit rather than civic pride or conscience, a conceit which paralyzes rather than inspires it."

DO NOT BELIEVE GIRL SHOT GLOVER

WALTHAM, Mass., Nov. 27.—Disbelieving the dying statement of Clarence Glover, who accused sixteen year old Hattie Le Blanc of the crime, the state police here are busy trying to locate a man who, they think, may be able to shed some light on the mystery.

Independent of the peculiar actions of Mrs. Glover in refusing to see her dying husband and his expressed fear that she "might shoot me," gasped out to Dr. Cousins, with his failing breath, many odd facts are puzzling the police. One is that the door through which Glover says he left the laundry office after being mortally wounded was locked and the revolver with which he said Hattie Le Blanc shot him twice was found some distance away from the building, beyond a fence. It is doubted by the police that a man shot to death in the manner described by the dying man would have the presence of mind to have first thrown the revolver 30 feet or more through a window, then calmly lock the outer door of the laundry and start for the hospital, 300 feet away, where he was found prostrate upon the doorstep within a few minutes after the shots were fired.

Stories told by two sisters of Hattie Le Blanc mention Toby Le Blanc, a brother of Mrs. Glover, as having had a violent quarrel with Hattie one week before the murder and as the property occupied and supposed to be owned by the Glovers stands in his name, the police want to know why, being so closely identified with

MARY ROBERTS RINEHART AUTHOR OF
The Circular Staircase
The Man in Lower Ten

When a Man Marries involves a dinner party of young society folks quarantined by the illness of a Jap butler, a charming girl masquerading against her will as hostess, a fat artist in love with his own wife, the wife imprisoned in her own furnace room, a rich aunt with an all too candid tongue, a policeman acting as chief cook and bottle washer, the mysterious presence of an unknown thief, who takes necklaces but prefers bed-clothing, the—but to name the characters is only to take the edge off the spontaneity of their uproarious fun.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers, in handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

popularity, but, if permitted, he will bring us safely to the proper haven. Under this Pilot the human will be like a strong vessel with mighty masts and sails or powerful engines. The greater the power, the greater the capacity and the more useful. The proper pilot will guide us not only safely past the rocks of disaster and shoals of sin, but to the haven of everlasting life and day and peace and fellowship Divine.

But not merely the strong-willed need this Pilot; the weak-willed naturally need him just as much, for although they might not run upon the rocks with the same degree of force and make equally bad shipwreck, they are quite as likely to be caught upon the shoals of sin, and in a purposeless manner, fail to achieve anything in life.

New Creatures in Christ Jesus
Those who during this age make a full surrender of their wills to the Lord and receive in return the begetting of the Holy Spirit are Scripturally termed "new creatures in Christ Jesus." Their wills are brought into subjection to the will of God in Christ. The lessons of God's Word and all the experiences of life under Divine supervision are promised to work for their good; to strengthen their wills if too weak; to make them properly pliable if too rigid, and in general, eventually to make of them the most that is possible in the present life in godliness, and to prepare them for the life that is to come.

Such are addressed by St. Paul in the present lesson. They are exhorted not to judge the brethren in the sense of condemning them, but rather to judge themselves, criticize themselves, and make of themselves shining examples, and thus to help the brethren and set a noble example before the world. All must give an account to the Lord sooner or later, and our judging them is unnecessary. Hence if we have judged or criticized each other in the past, we should avoid this in the future and merely criticize ourselves—our words, our deeds, our thoughts—that nothing in us shall put a stumbling

MANY PEOPLE GAVE ADVICE

To Pauline Korn, of San Gabriel, About Her Severe Illness—And Finally She Took It

San Gabriel, Tex.—"For two years," writes Pauline Korn, of this place, "I suffered with womanly trouble every month.

"I always suffered so much with headache and the backache and other pains.

"So many people would tell me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, so at last I tried it and found it to be a very nice medicine, as it relieved my pains.

"Cardui did me a great deal of good, for now I am well and healthy and do not suffer from any pains."

Of course, Miss Korn could have taken a drug to kill her pains, but that would not have made her "well and healthy" as Cardui did.

The great thing for you to remember about Cardui is that it is a perfectly harmless, gentle remedy, with no dangerous after-effects, whatever.

It does good, that stays good. It helps, not hinders, other medicines.

It has no habit-forming ingredients, and is safe for young and old. As a tonic, there is nothing in the drug store like it.

As a remedy for women's ills, it has no equal.

Try it.

The ceremonial cleanness of uncleanliness of food is nothing to the Christian, who is free from all law except the law of love. But the law of love controls and forbids us to stumble or even to grieve a brother less well-informed on the subject than ourselves. How could we, controlled by love, either eat or drink, act or speak in a manner that would cause injury to another? It is good to have liberty, but let us so use it as not to injure those less advanced.

The call of this Gospel Age is to joint-heirship with Christ in his Millennial Kingdom and those so called are not under the bondage of the Jewish Law. They have greater liberty in Christ. But shall we say that the advantage of our relationship to the Lord as prospective heirs of the Kingdom consists chiefly in liberty to eat what we choose and to drink what we please? Surely not. These are but the lesser advantages of our blessed relationship to Christ and the Kingdom. Our chief blessing consists in our "justification and peace and joy in the holy spirit."

Let us appreciate these, our chief blessings and privileges of the present time, for, in so doing, we shall be well-pleasing in God's sight, and men also will approve our conduct. So, then, let us follow after the things which make for peace and things whereby we may edify one another. Let us not even risk injury to the cause of righteousness and work of God's grace in others by using our liberties in any manner contrary to their welfare. On the contrary let us use our liberty as a privilege to void our rights, if thus we can glorify God and bless our fellows.

On the other hand, "babes in Christ," constantly in danger of being "choked" or "stumbled" by the words and deeds of others, so as to need "coddling," should seek to grow in grace and knowledge. Childish things should be put away and true manliness should be developed. Each should have a head, a heart and a conscience of his own, and permit others the same Christian liberty. "In non-essentials liberty—in all things charity" is a good motto for everybody and especially for Christians.

But what are "essentials" and what "non-essentials"? That is the question which "babes in Christ" find it difficult to determine.

Thank God for the Bible as our golden rule or standard. It must be studied constantly. It supplies the spiritual "milk for babes" and the "meat for strong men." By its use we may "grow in grace and knowledge" for the present life and be enabled to graduate in the School of Christ for the heavenly glory, honor and immortality promised to the "overcomers."

The mistake heretofore made by us all has been the substitution of human creeds and traditions for the Word of God. This has hindered our development and kept as "babes" or developed us in lovelessness and selfish meanness, and a persecuting spirit. We are now in the morning time of the New Dispensation, and thank God, many are awakening to worship—not the creeds of the dark ages, but our Heavenly Father—in spirit and in truth.

ROOSEVELT TOLD ONLY OF PEARY

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Herbert L. Bridgman, secretary of the Peary Arctic club, has received the following letter from ex-President Theodore Roosevelt:

"Onsafiri, North of Mt. Kenia, Sept. 22, 1909.—Dear Mr. Bridgman: Your cable has just been brought me by a native runner here in my camp by the Guaso Nyero. I am writing to Mrs. Peary and Captain Peary; I have no idea where he is. I am inexpressibly rejoiced at his wonderful triumphs and proud beyond measure as an American that this one of the greatest feats of the age should be performed by a fellow countryman of ours. It is the great feat of our generation. We are all Captain Peary's debtors, all of us who belong to civilized mankind. With heartfelt congratulations, faithfully yours, (Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

TEN DISMISSALS BY WM. LOEB, JR.

NEW YORK, Niv. 27.—Collector of the port, Wm. Loeb, Jr., has dropped from the customs service in New York ten assistant weighers, following the prolonged investigation into the sugar frauds. In a statement Loeb declares that the dismissals conclude the "general house cleaning."

WOMEN DON'T WANT JAGGED MAN HANGED

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Nov. 27.—Members of the W. C. T. U. of New Castle are considering sending an appeal to Gov. Stuart to prevent Fred Rosena, the murderer under sentence to be executed here Dec. 2, from being drugged before taken to the gallows.

The women are wrought up over a report that the drug most likely to be used, in the event some potion is needed in order to quiet Rosena and prevent a scene, will be whiskey.

WILL STAND PAT AGAINST BUDGET

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Lord Lansdowne and other leaders of the house of lords conservatives, are today pondering on their decision to reject the Lloyd-George budget. The speeches of Lord Roseberry and Lord Balfour coupled with the demonstration in parliament square, are admitted to have damaged the chances of the conservative cause in a general election and the lords are hesitating, but the best indications today are that Lord Lansdowne's motion to refer the bill to the people, will go to a division, and be carried.

8% Stock and 4% Convertible Bonds of American Telephone and Telegraph Company

The value of the telephone is in proportion to the number of possible connections. The instrument alone is a useless bit of mechanism. Connecting two persons, it immediately becomes valuable. Connecting over 4,000,000 (the number of telephones connected now by the Bell System) the value is incalculable. It is due to this inter-connection and inter-communication that the Bell System occupies its present day supremacy in the telephone field. The American Telephone & Telegraph Company, which, by majority stock-ownership, controls all operating Bell companies and the Western Electric Company, and which owns and operates the long distance and toll lines, is the centralized controlling and directing corporation for these allied companies—being virtually the United Bell System.

The sound financial condition of the company—great earning power, high character and ability of management, strong strategic position, freedom from important competitors, present 8% dividend rate, 27-year record of not less than 7 1/2% dividends, its $35,000,000 surplus of physical property over capital liabilities, and its policy of issuing new stock to stockholders at par—make these securities among the most attractive now on the market. Both the Stock and Bonds are listed on the Stock Exchanges of Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and London. We recommend them for investment and solicit orders for their purchase. WHEN A MAN'S FIFTY

When the average man reaches the age of fifty years, his body begins to creak a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "Not so young as he used to be" is a frequent and unwelcome thought which troubles itself. Little indulgences in the way of rich food and stimulating drinks must be foregone. Certain bodily functions, upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. As a rule, the weak spot is

THE BLADDER

When this organ becomes affected, even in a slight degree, it gives rise to most unpleasant symptoms. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise, and a generally disagreeable condition exists. This is particularly true with elderly people. The important feature of the matter is that the trouble can be obviated and cured. A remedy is at hand which is at the same time effective and inexpensive—GOLD MEDAL HAZELNUT OIL CAPSULES.

This old-fashioned, time-honored home remedy stands without an equal as an effective and sure remedy for all Bladder, Kidney, Liver and Stomach troubles. It has been used over 20 years and thousands testify to its efficacy. Later, however, many worthless and injurious imitations have sprung up. The Pure Food and Drug Law is making it difficult for these frauds. The genuine, reliable, trustworthy Hazelnut Oil is named GOLD MEDAL.

Gold Medal Hazelnut Oil is put up in two forms, in Capsules and Bottles. Capsules 25c and 50c, per box. Bottles 50c and $1.00, per bottle. Be sure you obtain the Gold Medal Tully brand.

YEGGMAN KILLED; SHERIFF IS DYING

In Duel with Robbers at Bemidji Safe Blower Is Instantly Killed—Companion Escapes

BE MIDJ I, Minn., Nov. 26. — A Yeggman believed to be Jim Smith, was instantly killed and Deputy Sheriff Andrew Johnson was shot and perhaps mortally wounded in a bloody battle fought near here yesterday between Sheriff Johnson, Deputy Sheriff Johnson and Patrolman Allen Benner on one side and two bandits who had blown a safe at Puposky, 15 miles north of Bemidji, on the other. Word was sent from Puposky to Bemidji at 3 a. m. that a safe had been blown and that the robbers had stolen a speeder and were coming toward Bemidji.

The three officers rushed to the Great Northern overhead bridge, a mile west of Bemidji, and waited for the robbers. Two men came down the track on the speeder with 200 feet of the bridge. They dismounted and walked directly toward Hazen and Johnson, Benner being concealed at the north end of the bridge, 500 yards away.

When the men were within ten feet of Johnson he commanded them to halt. He was answered by a shot from one of the men who carried a big calibre rifle, the ball striking him near the left shoulder and passing through his lungs, coming out below the shoulder. The other man shot at Hazen and barely missed his head. Deputy Johnson fell to the ground unconscious. Benner yelled to Hazen and Johnson to lay low and began shooting at the robbers. It was dark and foggy, and Benner could scarcely see anything in the shadows. The men started back up the track. On the fourth shot from Benner's rifle one of the men fell headforemost over the grade and never moved. Johnson was brought to a hospital here and there is little possibility of his recovery.

Many school children suffer from constipation which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation.

FIVE WOMEN ARE OVERCOME BY GAS

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 27.—Five women were overcome by illuminating gas in a rooming house at 490 Rice street, early this morning. Two are at St. Joseph's hospital in a critical condition, while the other three are confined to their rooms under the care of physicians. Five other women who lived in rooms on the same floor were affected by the gas, but did not become unconscious.

All would probably have lost their lives had not Miss Minnie Oliver, in a semi-conscious condition, crawled to a telephone and summoned aid.

The Victims

Mrs. L. Johnson, 34 years old; will probably die.

Mrs. Meade, a physician, 45 years old; condition critical.

Mrs. Kate Robinson, 24 years old; semi-conscious; will recover.

Miss Minnie Oliver, 27 years old; not serious.

Miss Wanda Irvine, 24 years old; not serious.

ing the bill the bandit pushed a revolver through the grill and ordered her to hold up her hands.

Miss Smith's wild screams caused a crowd of men and boys to rush toward the bank. Benbon, losing his nerve, dashed for the front door, firing as he went.

He was pursued by Marshal Riche and a posse of citizens for about half a mile. He fired wildly twice at the marshal and was finally captured just outside the village.

Benbon was prepared to make a desperate fight. His pockets contained about seventy-five cartridges. He had been working on the railroad here as a laborer.

WHITE PLAGUE IS FATAL TO WRANGHAM

After three years' illness with tuberculosis George Wrangham, 53, 1103 Pine street, died at 7:50 last night. He had lived here for twenty-eight years, coming here from Waukegan county. He had been employed for some years as fireman at the street car power house. Widow and three sons survive. George of St. Paul being a son by his first wife. Hiram of La Crosse and Albert, Green Lake, brothers, survive also.

Funeral services will be held on Monday at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Rev. A. Lincoln Shute officiating.

MAD SISTER'S ACT

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Margaret Smith, milliner, and her sister, Miss Minnie Wright, were found dead in their room here Friday. It is considered possible that it is a case of murder and suicide. Miss Wright several times had been confined in an asylum and the police are investigating along that line.

JIM HILL NOW SOUNDING ALARM

Says Consumption of Food Products Has Caught Up with Production; Population Increasing

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 27.—While not entirely agreeing with the recent statement issued by Bradstreet, which intimates that the consumption of food products in this country has caught up with production, James J. Hill says that the point has been very nearly reached and that it is so close that there is reason for alarm.

"I would not say that consumption has overtaken production," said Mr. Hill yesterday then the Bradstreet's statement was called to his attention, "but it is true that we are approaching dangerously near to that limit."

"It is a big question; one that requires years of study and investigation to answer. For one thing it would be necessary to go back for 25 years and study the relative increase in population and then make the same study of the increase in the food crops."

"Of course, even this will not absolutely answer the question of whether consumption has caught up with production, but it will show that there is now a narrow margin between them."

"It is something I have been preaching for years, and it is a matter which should be seriously considered."

"Our balance of trade is another indication. Look at the figures ten years ago and then look at them now. Our enormous balance at that time has dwindled away. We are not exporting foodstuffs as we were. We are consuming them ourselves."

"The reason for the increase in price this year over last is a matter of supply and demand."

SHOOTS A DEER FROM LOCOMOTIVE

MARINETTE, Wis., Nov. 27.—John Kehoe, a brakeman on the Wisconsin & Michigan railway, killed a deer Thanksgiving day from a train moving thirty miles an hour. He was on the locomotive when he saw three deer on the track ahead. Grabbing a rifle which was on the engine he mounted one of the box cars and blazed away at the animals as they left the tracks, killing one of them. The train was stopped and the dead deer taken aboard.

in a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.
